IT'S STILL ABOUT JESUS

This season continues the age-old tradition of dividing the world into those who still seek Jesus and those who bitterly oppose Him. The magi sought Him at His birth. King Herod opposed Him. The Jewish priests ignored Him. They knew the Scriptures pertaining to Jesus but did not obey them. They were just a few miles from The Son of God, yet refused to visit Him.

The Apostle Paul—writing under the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit—stated, "Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory." (I Corinthians 2:8)

John stated, "He came unto his own, and his own received him not." (John 1:11)

Jesus Himself stated, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." (John 5:40)

Sometimes people mistakenly infer that we should be more like Jesus and bring people together. The truth is that there have been divisions in this world because of Jesus since His Virgin Birth over 2,000 years ago. "So there was a division among the people because of him." (John 7:43) Although we are for bringing people together and try to do so as much as possible, we must understand that light and darkness cannot co-exist. "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?" (II Corinthians 6:14)

Our Nation is more divided than ever over the Person of Christ. He is unwanted in the school room, commissioners room, public square, and many department stores. His Birthday has become a "happy holidays sales event". In our malls and department stores, parents line up to take pictures of their children sitting on the lap of a fictitious character who is given all the attributes of Deity.

Many of our young people know more about sports stars than the Star of Bethlehem. They know more about the names of reindeers than the names of the Apostles. They are more interested in a Christmas tree than the One who hung upon a tree. Alcohol flows freely throughout this season where multitudes try to quench a thirst that can only be satisfied by the one who said, "But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (John 4:14)

We still say "Merry Christmas" instead of "Happy Holidays." We seek to correct those who either don't know or choose to be willfully ignorant. Jesus Christ is the most unique Person to ever walk across the stage of human history:

- At His Birth, He was the same age as His Father.
- At His Birth, He was older than His Mother.

(cont. from front page)

- At His Birth, He was the Creator of His mother.
- He was the Son of God by a Father without a mother.
- He was the Son of Man by His mother without a father.
- He was the Word who was God before all time.
- He was the Maker of the sun yet born under the sun.
- He remained in the Former yet came forth from the latter.
- He was the earthly Child of a Heavenly Father
- He was the Heavenly Child of an earthly mother.
- He visited us so that we could spend eternity with Him.
- He was born of a virgin so that we might be born again.
- He was made the Son of Man so that we might become the sons and daughters of God.
- He spent thirty-three years with us so that we might spend eternity with Him.
- He came to die that we might live.
- He walked among us so that we might walk among Deity.
- He came out of eternity into time so that we might leave time and go into eternity.
- "He was rich yet for our sakes He became poor that we through His poverty might be made rich." (II Cor. 8:9)

The purpose of Return America is to build a network of churches and individuals to educate, motivate, and mobilize citizens in a united effort in promoting Judeo-Christian values; to educate and influence government in these principles upon which our state and nation were founded.
